DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

“WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY ACT.”

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that Order in Council No. 1395, dated the 12th day of November, 1931, made pursuant to the provisions of the “Weekly Half-holiday Act,” chapter 273 of the “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924,” whereby the business of automobile service-stations was declared exempt from the provisions of the Act as to the weekly half-holiday, be amended by adding thereto the following:—

“The business of automobile service-stations within the corporate limits of the City of Prince Rupert shall not include, nor be deemed to include:—

“(a.) Shops, garages, or premises where the business of repairing, reconditioning, painting, or otherwise working on or improving motor-vehicles of every kind and description within the definition of ‘motor-vehicle’ in the ‘Motor-vehicle Act’:

“(b.) Shops, garages, show-rooms, and other premises where any new motor-vehicle is offered or displayed for sale, it being understood that a new motor-vehicle shall be and be deemed to be one which has not heretofore been operated on the highways of this Province, and for which no licensee has been issued to an owner under the provisions of section 4 of the ‘Motor-vehicle Act’:

“(c.) Shops, garages, or premises where spare parts for motor-vehicles of any description are kept for sale or distribution.”

GEO. S. PEARSON,
Minister of Labour.

*Department of Labour,
Victoria, B.C., July 17th, 1945.* 341-jy26

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

“SHOPS REGULATION AND WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY ACT.”

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, pursuant to the provisions of the “Shops Regulation and Weekly Half-holiday Act,” the trades and businesses hereinafter set forth be, within the corporate limits of the City of Prince Rupert, declared exempt from the provisions of the said Act as to the weekly half-holiday:—

1. Shops, garages, or premises where the business of repairing, reconditioning, painting, or otherwise working on or improving motor-vehicles of every kind and description within the definition of “motor-vehicle” in the “Motor-vehicle Act”:

2. Shops, garages, show-rooms, and other premises where any new motor-vehicle is offered or displayed for sale, it being understood that a new motor-vehicle shall be and be deemed to be one which has not heretofore been operated on the highways of this Province, and for which no licensee has been issued to an owner under the provisions of section 4 of the “Motor-vehicle Act”:

3. Shops, garages, or premises where spare parts for motor-vehicles of any description are kept for sale or distribution.

Provided always that these exemptions are subject to the following conditions and restrictions:—

(a.) All premises or businesses above referred to shall be closed for the serving of or service to customers or patrons not later than one o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday in every week, and shall remain so closed until the following Monday, and no employer shall require or permit any of his employees to remain in his shop for a longer period than thirty minutes after such closing hour. Provided further that any such garage or shop where the business of repairing motor-vehicles is carried on may make emergency repairs for owners or operators of motor-vehicles and may retain on the premises after the said hour for the said purposes such of its employees as may be necessary to effect such emergency repairs; and the expression “emergency repairs” shall and shall be deemed to mean:—

(1.) Only such essential repairs as are required to enable a motor-vehicle to operate on the highway if the time necessary to complete such repairs does not exceed one hour:

(2.) Repairs for owners or operators of motor-vehicles residing outside the City of Prince Rupert, and essential to enable such motor-vehicle to operate on the highway:

(b.) All shops, businesses, garages, premises, show-rooms, and premises included within the above-named exemptions which shall not be closed from one o'clock on Saturday afternoon in every week as hereinabove provided until the following Monday, shall be and be deemed to be removed from the scope and effect of such exemptions and shall not be included therein and shall be in all ways subject to the provisions of the said “Shops Regulation and Weekly Half-holiday Act” as if the said exemptions had not been granted.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

To carry on the business of erecting, constructing, altering, and repairing houses, buildings, factories, or works of every description, and generally to carry on as general building contractors, and for that purpose to purchase, acquire, and own all necessary plants, machinery, or equipment that may appear necessary to the Company for the purpose of carrying out any contract entered into by the Company, and in particular to undertake contracts, either alone or with others, for the construction, maintenance, improvement, or development of any buildings, roads, railroads, tramways, waterworks, irrigation projects, dockage facilities, breakwaters, booming-grounds, or other works and conveniences which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to these objects, and to contribute or otherwise arrange or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, workings, or control and management of any such contracts, works, or projects, whether of a public or private nature:

(b.) To manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, laths, sashes, doors, portable buildings, boxes, and all articles and materials in which the manufacture of timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business or by way of securities, and to purchase, acquire, or lease to hold tenements and hereditaments for the purposes of the Company, either for cash or for fully paid shares in the Company:

(d.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business and property of any partnership or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on or to obtain possession of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To import and export all manner of products for trade purposes and for the use of the Company:

(f.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any partnership, persons, or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(g.) To undertake or otherwise acquire, hold, and deal in shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(h.) To develop and turn to account land acquired by the Company or in which it is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings and conveniences, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building or farming leases or building or farming agreements, or advancing money to and entering into arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(i.) For any purposes of the Company to borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issuing of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(j.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To invest any moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as the Company may from time to time determine:

(m.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in any way similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To carry on a general trading business:

(o.) To carry on any other business permitted by the "Companies Act" and which may seem to the Company to be conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered, pursuant to the "Companies Act," an office copy of an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Wilson, dated the 4th day of July, 1945, confirming wholly a special resolution of the Malahat Shipping Company (1934), Ltd., for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The objects of the Company have been extended by the addition of the following clauses:—

"(m.) To carry on, either as principals or agents, anywhere within or without the Dominion of Canada, the business of general contractors, manufacturers, merchants (wholesale and retail), dealers, agents, and brokers in the sale, purchase, import, and export of goods, wares, and merchandise of any kind and description:

"(n.) To design, manufacture, construct, erect, install, repair, salvage, alter, decorate, paint, surface, equip and surface, own, lease, rent, buy, sell, import, export, and deal in buildings, houses, auto-courts, tourist and sportsmen camps, hotels, taverns, inns, fish, bird, game, and fur farms, and buildings and houses and other structures suitable for breakdown, assembly, and erection, and building, plumbing, musical instruments, plastics, synthetics, stains, paints, lacquers, varnishes, wall coverings and coatings, electrical, optical, surgical, automotive, hospital, military, naval, ordnance, air force, defence plant equipment and supplies of all kinds:

"(o.) To carry on business as principals, general representatives, and agents, salvage for sale, let on hire, convert, and to act generally as appraisers, valuers, or adjusters of property, real estate, personal estate, Government property (municipal, county, Provincial, Federal, foreign), stocks, goods, and chattels of every kind and description, or for any other lawful purpose:

"(p.) To collect moneys due to any person, persons, municipality, or Government, society, co-operative estate, or corporation, or any one else:

"(q.) To carry on the business of storage, drayage, wharfage, warehousing, and forwarding, and the doing of every act or acts, thing or things incidental or growing out of or connected with the said business, including the owning, leasing, and holding goods of every kind and description, the issue of storage and warehouse receipts (negotiable and non-negotiable) covering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise, and the clearing through Canadian and foreign customs and excise of the same:

"(r.) To carry on anywhere within or without Canada, in any and all their branches, the businesses of trading-posts, guest-houses, resorts, auto camps, hotels, taverns, bath-houses, Turkish, Finnish, and steam baths, rooming-houses, boarding-houses, lodging-houses, dance-halls, skating-rinks, and innkeepers or proprietors of restaurants, cafés, refreshment-rooms, purveyors, caterers for public amusements generally, to buy, sell, own, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to rent, let, lease every kind and description of motor-vehicle, engine, boat, vessel, sled, toboggan, aircraft, storage, garages, and service-stations, and general mercantile business, both at wholesale and retail, repair garage proprietors, livery-stable keepers, hairdressers, barbers, perfumers, chemists, recreation, sport, entertainment, and instruction of all kinds, merchants and dealers in all kinds and descriptions of foods, drinks, beverages, liquid refreshments, tobaccos, cigars, cigarettes, confectionery, and any other goods, provision, fuels, medical and surgical supplies, tourist goods and things whatsoever likely to be desired by persons dealing with the Company, agents for shipping companies and carriers, general merchants, general agents, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection therewith, and, subject to the provisions of the 'Government Liquor Act' of British Columbia, to own and operate beer-parlours, taverns, and licensed premises, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being beneficially carried on, or calculated, either directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

"(s.) To acquire, own, carry on, hold, operate, manage, be interested in, turn to account, mortgage, encumber, and alienate the above businesses in all their branches and departments, and also other businesses and property and rights in connection therewith or ancillary thereto; manufacturers, carriers by air, land, or water, merchants and dealers in goods, wares, and chattels of any description whatsoever, contractors, wharfingers, warehousemen, foundrymen, electricians, valuers, brokers, agents, importers, exporters, financiers, commission agents:

"(t.) To exercise all other powers, rights, and privileges competent to a company incorporated under the 'Companies Act' or any Act in amendment thereto or in substitution therefor:

"(u.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property or goods acquired by the Company or for services or other valuable consideration:

"(v.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person or corporation be a member of this Company or not.

"The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.
